

Music adapted from
Cantigas de Santa Maria, No. 100
Alfonso X El Sabio
(1221-1284)

Siglo the Salmon

Refrain

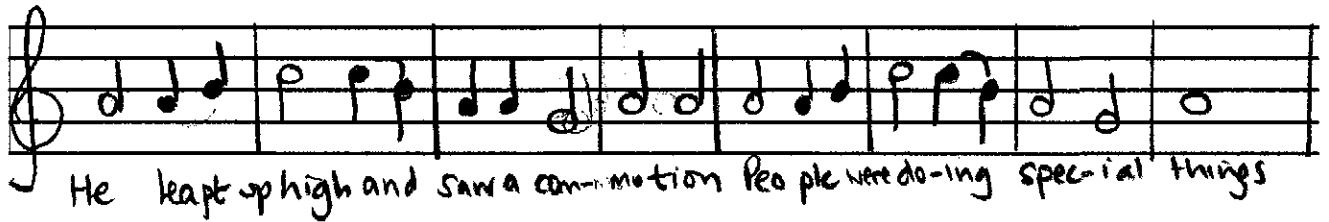

Why do sal-mon swim in the o-cean? Why do they come up the sev-ern Sea?

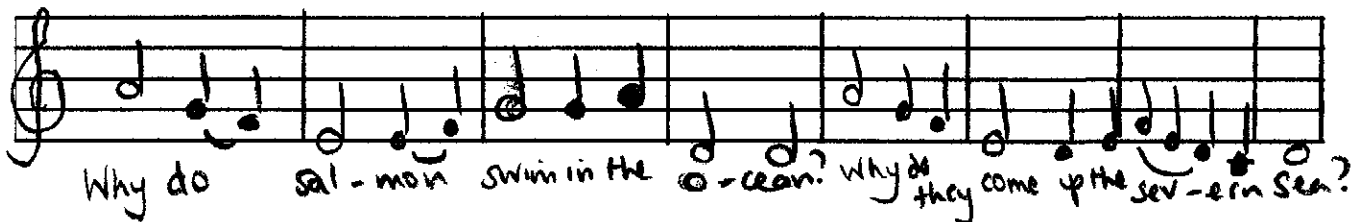

vi

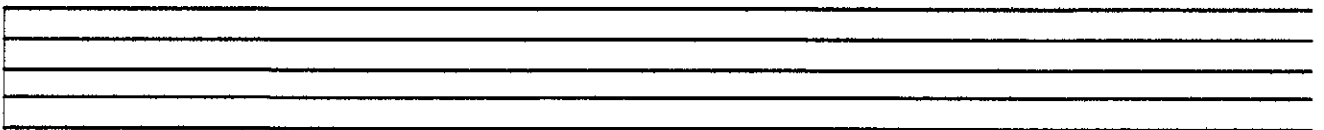

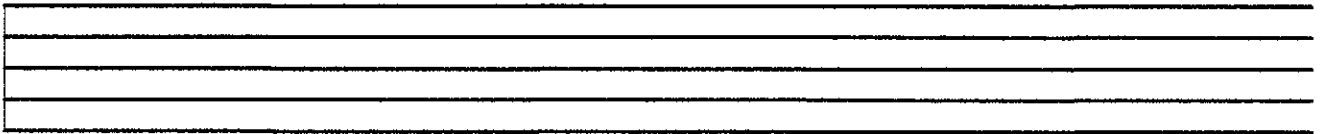

Sig-lo the sal-mon came to town Good job the bore didn't make him drown!

He kept up high and saw a com-mo-tion Peo-ple were do-ing special things

Why do sal-mon swim in the o-cean? Why do they come up the sev-ern Sea?

v2

Sig - lo the Sal - mon look to the right A small boy gave him an in - vite.

Why don't you join in our pro - ces - sion? We're hav - ing fun, you can come with me.

Why do Sal - mon swim in the o - cean? Why do they come up the Sev - ern sea?

v3

Sig - lo the Sal - mon was raised on a stick Off they went at quite a lick.

Gi - ants and beasts danced a - long the route Mu - sic was played on shawms and lute.

Why do Sal - mon swim in the o - cean? Why do they come up the Sev - ern sea?

v4

Sig-lo the Sal-mon stopped with a lurch They had a-rrived at / Wha-dden church. Fram-phon

All of the peo-ple went in-side Back to the ri-ver did Sig-lo glide.

Why do Sal-mon swim in the o-cean? Why do they come up the sev-er in sea?

©Rose Hewlett 2015

